II. Head Coach Introduction - Dave DiIanni

Head Soccer Coach Dave DiIanni has been at the University of Iowa for two and a half years. One of his goals was to build a culture of doing things the right way and stated great progress has been made to reach that objective. He is extremely proud of his student-athletes who had the highest team grade-point-average (GPA) of all Iowa's sport teams with a rating of 3.27. Also of note, 20 soccer student-athletes have a 3.0 GPA or higher. He and his staff remind team members they are students first: go to class, talk to your professors, and use the services provided by the Student-Athlete Academic Services' staff.

Coach DiIanni hired a new assistant, Rade Tanaskovic, in January 2017. His 2017 recruiting class was ranked 22nd in the country. He has eight seniors who are good leaders and role models for the younger student-athletes.

Questions relating to scholarship numbers, recruitment both locally and nationally, the soccer facility, and scheduling were address to Coach DiIanni. A good discussion took place in response to these queries. Chair Hollingworth thanked Coach for his report.

III. Presentation/Demonstration Nicole White, Nutritionist

White introduced herself to Committee members by sharing her personal and educational background. She began working in the Athletics Department in September 2016. Attached is a PowerPoint entitled “Iowa Sports Nutrition...Fuel, Focus, Perform” encompassing nutrition goals for student-athletes. Embedded in the presentation are pictures and sites of eight fueling stations for UI student-athletes. Food and drink provided benefit the student-athletes at various stages of daily athletic routines such as pre-fueling prior to workouts/practices, recovery afterwards, and as gap builders, i.e., time between practices and classes when they do not have time to eat. Sample nutritional food/drink items were shared with PCA members. White stated a goal of the UI nutrition program is to be the benchmark by which other institutions strive to reach.

Questions ensued from the Committee spurring further discussions on topics such as training table, eating disorders, choosing nutritional items, etc. Chair Hollingworth thanked White for her presentation.

IV. Athletics Department Searches - Dillavou

Dillavou summed the searches conducted this academic year and noted the PCA member assigned: assistant track coach (pending) - Chung; assistant football coach - Matheson; athletic trainer for women’s gymnastics - Rhodes; assistant soccer coach - Dillavou; and, three assistant football coaches - Ryan and Dillavou.

V. Subcommittee Updates

A. Student-Athlete Well-Being - Chung

The Student-Athlete Well-Being subcommittee will meet February 27, 2017. Iowa Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (ISAAC) Executive Board members will attend this meeting to report on events ISAAC members are participating in this year. Other important topics to be discussed this semester are: parking, time demands, practice schedules, team rules, and non-athletic activities.

B. Academic Achievement - Kelly

C. Equity - Bowden

No report.

VI. ISAAC Report – Woods

- A. Woods announced that today is his final meeting because baseball season is beginning. Tovar added a replacement is being discussed. Chair Hollingworth thanked Corbin Woods for his service to the PCA on behalf of ISAAC.
- B. The following activities were mentioned by Woods:
- 1. “Fuel Up to Play 60” will start soon. Student-athletes will volunteer in local elementary schools to teach children about nutrition, being active, and living healthy.
 - 2. Hawkeye Pride begins next week. Student-athletes will act as tutors, mentors, or monitors for students at Coralville Central Elementary School.
 - 3. Kevin Willmott, a movie director, screenwriter, and professor of film students at the University of Kansas, will present a program entitled “Race & Sport: Student Activism, Expression, Racial Tolerance.” The event will take place Sunday, February 19, 7:00 p.m., Kinnick Stadium Press Box. Invitations have been sent to UI student-athletes and coaches. Committee members are welcome to attend.
 - 4. A forum to enhance relationships among UI student-athletes and build a culture of respect for all aspects of diversity will take place on Wednesday, March 1, 7:30 – 8:30 p.m., on the Main Court at Carver-Hawkeye Arena. All coaches and student-athletes are encouraged to attend. PCA members are welcome to join the forum.
 - 5. UI student-athletes raised approximately $2,000 in support of the UI’s Dance Marathon.

VII. NCAA Report - Barta, Burke, Drake, Grosland

The enclosed summary of autonomy proposals adopted at the January 2017 NCAA Convention were distributed by Clerry. Drake asked PCA members to review proposals 2016-135, 2016-136, and 2016-137 relating to time demands that become effective August 1, 2017. Clerry and her staff will review and monitor the student-athlete time management plans for all sports.

VIII. Athletics Director’s Report

- A. The February sports report and schedules are enclosed. Barta’s highlights appear below:
- 1. Men’s basketball lost in double overtime to Minnesota.
 - 2. The women’s basketball team competes against Michigan State tonight at 6:00 p.m. in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

3. Wrestling is having a good season. Thomas Gilman, the nation's top-ranked wrestler was down 8-0 and came back to pin his Minnesota opponent.
4. The men's and women's gymnastics teams are having terrific seasons. The women are currently ranked in the Top 25.
5. The new indoor track is receiving great reviews.
6. Several staffing changes are occurring in football. Brian Ferentz was elevated to Offensive Coordinator after Greg Davis' retirement. Three assistant football coach positions became available resulting in Ken O'Keefe's hire as quarterbacks coach; two assistant football coaching positions are pending.

Barta explained a Conflict of Interest (COI) Management Plan was created when B. Ferentz was hired as an assistant coach whereby B. Ferentz reported to him and not to the Head Football Coach. There were no substantial changes that needed to be made to the existing management plan.

Barta added in April 2017 the NCAA Board of Directors will meet. One piece of legislation to be considered will allow institutions to hire a tenth assistant football coach.

B. Work on the Athletics Department's budget is underway.

IX. Adjourn – Next Meeting March 7

Chair Hollingworth adjourned the meeting at 5:12 p.m. The next PCA meeting will be Tuesday, March 7, 2017.
