Rhodes moved to approve the April 4, 2019, minutes; Colin seconded. Committee members granted full approval.

II. Athletics Marketing - Charlie Taylor

Taylor gave background information on his education & career and introduced Kelsey Laverdiere, Assistant Athletics Director for Marketing & Fan Engagement. His staff consists of 26 individuals and numerous student interns who oversee marketing for the UI sports programs.

Taylor continued with a PowerPoint presentation entitled "Fight For Iowa." (A copy is enclosed.) His talk focused on branding, i.e., meaning, visual impact, and delivery to get "buy-in" from fans, recruits, and the public. He stressed today's environment is an image-driven world and social media is the primary tool used to market the Iowa Hawkeye sports programs.

Committee members asked questions. Chair Matheson thanked Taylor who received a round of applause.

III. Athletics Department Searches - Kehoe

Kehoe noted the assistant football coach position has been filled. Searches are underway for a men's basketball assistant coach, a soccer assistant coach, and a strength & conditioning assistant coach for wrestling. Friestad, Dillavou, and Kehoe are serving on those searches respectively.

Chair Matheson and Kehoe thank all PCA members who have participated in searches this past year.

IV. Subcommittee Updates

A. Student-Athlete Well-Being - Dillavou

Assistant Director for Facilities Damian Simcox attended the April 22, 2019, meeting and spoke about facility projects planned for 2020. Colin was also in attendance to enlighten the subcommittee on ISAAC activities that took place during the academic year. The men's and women's gymnastics coaches were present to talk about their facilities in the Field House. A tour of the gymnastics facility followed.

B. Academic Achievement - Bowden

Bowden reported Tovar attended their last meeting and spoke about the Gerdin Athletic Learning Center. She explained the softball team engaged in a pilot project to monitor each student-athlete's missed classes. The task proved to be successful. Further discussion will take place on what the future may hold for other sports.

A good discussion took place regarding graduate transfers. Plans are to monitor student-athletes who choose to transfer to another institution to see if they're finishing their degrees.

C. Equity - Osborn

Osborn stated Tovar attended the last Equity Subcommittee meeting to discuss the UI's Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion survey results. Tovar enlightened the group on what the Athletics Department is doing in response to ideas received from that survey.

Equity Subcommittee members are completing their year-end interviews with coaching staff members. Osborn reminded Committee members the purpose of these sessions is to ensure that everything is good with their teams.
